The Archdiocese's Mission

THE MISSION of the Archdiocese of Seattle, embodied in the person of the Archbishop, is to tell the good news of Jesus Christ to all people. As expressed in the Archbishop's vision statement, A Future Full of Hope, the church's mission begins with Encuentro and moves through a process of conversion to a life of communion (supported by catechesis and ongoing spiritual formation), solidarity (expressed in terms of social justice and concern for the common good), and ongoing evangelization.

The parishes and institutions of the Archdiocese such as schools, chaplaincies, and centers for Catholic community service deliver the church's mission to each person on the local level. Departments and programs of the Chancery office assist the Archbishop in supporting parishes and other institutions in the field. Good communication is essential for delivering the mission effectively.

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Catholic Center of the Archdiocese of Seattle! This is truly an historic moment in the life of our local Church. The addition of the Pigott Building at 710 9th Avenue to the Catholic Center consolidates the administrative and pastoral functions of the Archdiocese on one central campus.

The departments, offices, and programs located on the Catholic Center campus extend my ministry as Archbishop in service to parishes and faith communities throughout the Archdiocese of Seattle. This consolidation of resources will allow us to serve more efficiently our priests, deacons and lay pastoral leaders as they work to promote the mission of the Church in Western Washington and implement the priorities of our vision statement, A Future Full of Hope. In addition, we welcome the offices of the Washington State Catholic Conference, the Fulcrum Foundation and Catholic Mutual.

I offer my sincere thanks to all who have made the creation of the Catholic Center campus a reality, with special thanks to Charles Pigott, whose generous donation made acquisition of the Pigott Building possible.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Alex J. Brunett
