

THE FUTURE OF OUR CHURCH

The Archdiocese of Seattle has been blessed with some of the largest classes of seminarians in recent history.

We continue to have large numbers of young men committed to serve those in need and be a sign of Christ's presence in our parishes and faith communities.

The rich life experiences and cultural diversity of our seminarians helps provide vital future leadership in our church.

Each year of formation costs $45,000 for one seminarian.
