A Message from Archbishop Sartain

By now you have received the invitation to join me on a sacred pilgrimage to England September 2-11, 2018, which includes three nights in a countryside English manor home and five nights in London. We will be visiting holy places which revere English martyrs for the Catholic faith, specifically St. Thomas More, St. Thomas Becket, St. Philip Howard and St. John Fisher.

It will be my privilege to celebrate the Eucharist with you each day in renowned churches and chapels. One of our Masses will be celebrated in the beautiful Westminster Cathedral in London. We will learn about the plight of Catholics during the English Reformation and visit some of the priest holes where priests hid in order to be kept safe. A day is planned in Chelsea, where we can see the highlights of St. Thomas More’s life. There will also be opportunities to tour Canterbury, Arundel, Oxford, and of course, to see the sights of London.

Since you are members of the Crozier Society, I am offering this invitation to you first, and you are welcome to invite your family and friends before we open it up to the general public. Enclosed with my letter is the itinerary with all the details of our pilgrimage, including the reservation form on the back. Because space is limited, I hope you will respond as quickly as you can.

I thank you for considering this opportunity to join me on our pilgrimage to England, where together we will ask God’s continued blessings on your families, parishes and our Archdiocese.

Sincerely in Christ,

J. Peter Sartain

Priesthood Ordination

On Saturday, June 3rd, four men were ordained to the priesthood at St. James Cathedral. It was a privilege to witness, since we have come to know all of them over the years as Crozier Society members. They are (left to right) Fr. Jeffrey Moore, Fr. Chris Hoiland, Fr. Colin Parrish and Fr. Chad Green.

Summer Mass & BBQ

We experienced yet another beautiful day at Palisades for the Mass & BBQ on June 4th. Nearly 130 people packed into the chapel to celebrate Mass with Archbishop Sartain. He spent the day with us after presiding over not one, but two ordinations that week. Five of our wonderful seminarians were there too, including newly ordained Deacon Justin Ryan, who served as Deacon at Mass and Kyle Poje, who gave a beautiful vocation story. We enjoyed the lovely view of the sound during the reception, listened to Bluegrass Music, celebrated Archbishop’s birthday and ate southern-style BBQ prepared by Susan.
Dear Friends,

I am extremely pleased to announce that I have appointed Deacon Pierce Murphy Executive Director of Stewardship and Development, effective July 1.

Many of you know Pierce. Ordained a deacon for the Diocese of Boise in 2001, he has enjoyed wide experience not only in Church positions but also in business and community service. He has served as Executive Director for the Office of Police Accountability for the City of Seattle since 2013, and immediately prior to his work here he served for 14 years in the Office of Community Ombudsman for the City of Boise, an office he created as a new model of police oversight. He has also worked as Human Resources Manager and Financial Analyst, as well as a Reserve Police Officer in California.

Pierce was Respect Life Director for the Diocese of Boise for 5 years and Presbyteral Council Facilitator for the Diocese of Boise for 6 years. He was a member of the Strategic Planning Leadership Team for that Diocese and past chairman and board member of Catholic Charities of Idaho for 9 years. He is currently assigned to diaconal ministry at St. Michael Parish in Snohomish. Those of you who know Pierce are aware of his keen skills in mediation, community building, and communication. He is deeply committed to the mission of the Church.

Pierce holds a Masters of Pastoral Studies from Loyola of New Orleans, an M.A. in Counseling Psychology from Gonzaga, a B.S. in Commerce from Santa Clara University, and was in formation as a Jesuit for 4 years. His wife, Mary Anne, is Pastoral Assistant for Faith Formation and Evangelization at St. Michael Parish in Snohomish. They have 8 children, one of whom is a seminarian for the Diocese of Boise.

I am excited to have someone of Pierce’s caliber to lead our extensive Stewardship and Development efforts and know he will do an excellent job. Please join me in welcoming him to our archdiocesan team!

Sincerely in Christ,

J. Peter Sartain

Thank You!!

Archbishops’ Golf Tournament

Because of the incredible generosity of our Crozier members, we were blessed to raise just shy of $212,000 for the Seminarian Formation Fund! That gives us the ability to pay for the formation of five seminarians for one year. On behalf of our Archbishops and 21 seminarians, we truly cannot thank you enough.
Nearly 140 guests came to the Crozier Society and Legacy Society Appreciation Dinner, including both archbishops. This event gave us an opportunity to thank you for your incredible support & generosity throughout the year. All of you made it possible to raise $760,000 last year for our seminarians from your dues, extra donations and the golf tournament. That pays for the formation of 17 seminarians for one year! So again, THANK YOU!

We began the night by celebrating Mass with Archbishop at St. James Cathedral, followed by a reception and dinner at Isaac Orr.
Pray for our seminarians, and for vocations to the religious life!
