

Copyrights/Royalties/Inventions

HR 23. Unless otherwise specified in a written contractual agreement, the parish owns the exclusive and sole rights to any and all proprietary information, royalties and inventions. The parish owns work prepared by independent contractors within the scope of their contract. Independent contractors may not participate in any manner or at any time in the distribution, transfer or exchange of copyrighted material without obtaining required permission.