

Archdiocese of Seattle Faith Formation Newsletter May 15, 2017

Dear Catechetical Colleagues,

We have wonderful news! On May 1st, our new Director for Spanish Faith Formation began his ministry with us. Carlos Carrillo comes with wonderful skills in education and a work history in both social work and Hispanic ministry. We are very excited and know he will be a major blessing for both our English and Spanish speaking communities! Many of you will meet Carlos at our PAFF Conference on June 7th, but we also asked him to introduce himself with the message below.

My name is Carlos Carrillo and I have been hired as the Director of Spanish Faith Formation for the Archdiocese. I have spent this past week in becoming familiar with the great resources and programs the Archdiocese offers and I feel honored to be an active member in "proposing the Christian faith in its entirety and its authenticity, in accordance with the Church's understanding..." to Catholic children and adults, as it is stipulated in the National Directory for Catechesis. Since I'm new in the Archdiocese, I would ask if you can forward my contact information to staff or volunteers who are assisting Hispanic children and families in your parish for them to contact me and request information about the Faith Formation programs we are offering and will be offering in the future. I would also encourage you to invite them to the next Annual Conference of Parish Catechetical Leaders scheduled at the Chancery on June 7. I'm looking forward to meeting you at this event.

Below is my contact information:

Carlos Carrillo, M. Ed.
Director de Formación en la Fe/Director of Spanish Faith Formation

Tel: 206-903-4644

Having Carlos join us with Faith Formation leads us to our "Essential Concept" this week: Christ's Faithful: Hierarchy, Laity and Consecrated Life. As you all know, we are graced to minister in a Church with different roles for how we live out our universal call to holiness. The following video links provide examples of how the vocations of bishops, priests, religious and lay people all have unique responsibilities for sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ.

One last note - please check out the June retreat offered by Fr. Bill Watson, SJ on A Spiritual Workshop on the New Evangelization Fr. Watson's ministry with Sacred Story has been a transformative experience for many of us in the Archdiocese, so we highly recommend this retreat opportunity, which is now open for all lay people!

Attendees of the Annual PAFF Conference will have the opportunity to take home books & media from the Library Media Center after the meeting. We would suggest you plan to stay for at least one hour to participate in this once-in-a-lifetime event!

In Christ,

Anne Frederick, Ed.D.
