Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Annual Report highlights the stewardship of your financial gifts to the local church, especially your generous response to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Of course, these gifts are only one aspect of stewardship. Over the course of my first full year in the Archdiocese of Seattle, I have observed with gratitude the many ways in which our clergy, religious and lay people give witness to their discipleship as good and faithful stewards of God's abundance.

As disciples of Jesus we express our gratitude to God for the abundant gifts we have received by returning to God with joy a generous portion of all we have. It is in the spirit of a disciple's gratitude and joy that I present this Annual Report.

Each year confronts us with new challenges and the past fiscal year was no exception. Despite the generosity of our people, which has resulted in nine consecutive years of record donations to the Annual Catholic Appeal, slow growth in the economy and other factors forced us to reduce the budget in order to carry out our mission within available resources. With gratitude for your generosity, we managed to continue the many ministries and activities of the Church that bring the hope and compassion of Jesus to so many.

As I present this report, I acknowledge a deep debt of gratitude to our Archdiocesan Finance Council, one of many consultative bodies that assist me in my pastoral ministry. This group of dedicated disciples brings to its deliberations a high level of professional expertise and a profound devotion to the Church. Like so many other individuals and groups, their counsel is indispensable. This year we also recall with mixed emotions the wise and faithful stewardship of a trusted disciple, Pat Sursely, who contributed many years of service to the local Church, most recently as the chief financial officer of the Archdiocese of Seattle. With Pat's death in early 2012 we acknowledge his service of more than 30 years as an example of the faithful stewardship by clergy, religious and lay people who work, serve and contribute to the well-being of the Church.

In the year ahead we will feel the absence of Pat's leadership, but we take up our ministry with joy knowing it is entrusted to the care of Christ, our help, our hope and our salvation. As this 2010-2011 report indicates, the Archdiocese has kept its financial house in order and is taking steps to steward the resources that will be entrusted to us in the years ahead. I submit this annual report for your consideration with abundant thanks to God for your generosity.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Rev. J. Peter Sartain, Archbishop of Seattle
The information contained in this report provides a financial overview of the Archdiocese of Seattle. Archbishop J. Peter Sartain is the spiritual leader of the Roman Catholic Church in Western Washington. He is also the CEO and a corporate member of the Corporation of the Catholic Archbishop of Seattle. The corporation is made up of a number of independent financial entities. They include: the Chancery (the Central Offices of the Archdiocese) which is under the direct control of the Archbishop, the parishes including parish elementary schools, which are separate canonical units, the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry (OYYAM), the Parish Revolving Fund (PRF), Associated Catholic Cemeteries, and the three Archdiocesan high schools (O’Dea High School, Bishop Blanchet High School and Kennedy High School).

Archbishop Sartain is also the corporate member of Catholic Community Services of Western Washington, Catholic Housing Services of Western Washington, the Fulcrum Foundation, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton High School and Pope John Paul II High School; all separate corporations.

In the pages of this report you will find a summary of the statements of financial activities for the Chancery. There is also general financial information related to Archdiocesan parishes, schools and other agencies, as well as Catholic Community Services, Catholic Housing Services and the Fulcrum Foundation. This report also includes a letter from the Archdiocesan Finance Council addressing the overall financial health of the Church in Western Washington. We hope you find it to be informative.

The Parish Revolving Fund (PRF) and Archdiocesan Revolving Fund (ARF) are separately maintained savings and loan organizations within the Archdiocese. Parishes and other institutions deposit surplus funds in the appropriate fund. These funds are then available as loans to grow the Church throughout the Archdiocese. The PRF serves parishes while the ARF provides the same service for other institutions.

A seven member Commission oversees PRF operations, Commission members are listed on page 8. PRF savings at 6/30/11 totaled $82.1 million in 685 accounts up 6% from last year’s $77.5 million in 652 accounts. This increase primarily reflected savings growth in anticipation of several major building projects moving into construction over the summer. Loans decreased to $62.5 million from the previous year’s $66.6 million. The number of loans also decreased slightly from 139 to 136.

ARF savings increased from $18.7 million in 652 accounts up 6% from last year’s $18.7 million in 652 accounts. This increase primarily reflected savings growth in anticipation of several major building projects moving into construction over the summer. Loans decreased to $12.3 million from the previous year’s $12.5 million. The number of loans also decreased slightly from 139 to 136.

Despite the current economic environment, Catholics in Western Washington continued their strong support of parishes and missions during 2010/2011. The total increase (3.55%) reflected both the transition of three ethnic communities to Personal Parishes and a 2.08% increase in existing parishes. Parish Ordinary Income (Sunday and Holyday Collections) in 2010/2011 was $88.1 million. Total parish revenue from all sources, including parish schools, was in excess of $236.4 million. Over 63% of our parishes and missions ended the year with an operating surplus. The economic diversity and variations in community size continue to be reflected in parish collections. In 2010/2011, 22 parishes recorded over $1 million in collections including two over $2 million. At the same time, Ordinary Income in 12 parishes, primarily in rural areas, was under $100,000.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) is the domestic anti-poverty, social justice program of the U.S. Catholic community. Its mission is to address the root causes of poverty in the U.S. through promotion and support of community-controlled, self-help organizations and through transformative education in parishes, schools and faith communities.

The Pontifical Missions Societies include the Propagation of the Faith, which seeks prayer and sacrifice for the world’s Missions in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands and Latin America. Help is offered for pastoral and evangelizing programs, for catechetical work, to build churches, for the work of Religious communities, and for communication and transportation needs. The Society of St. Peter the Apostle supports the education and formation of candidates for the priesthood and for Religious life in the developing world. The Holy Childhood Association is dedicated to mission awareness among elementary school-age children — children serving children in need.

In fiscal year 2010/2011, the Missions Office received $2,920,765 for mission, relief and development work of the Church primarily through the Catholic Relief Services Collections, Operation Rice Bowl, the World Mission Sunday collection, the Build Hope collection, emergency response such as the Japan earthquake and tsunami in March 2011, designated gifts and bequests.
During 2010-2011, the 57 diocesan elementary schools, four additional Catholic elementary schools and Eastside Catholic Middle School provided the highest quality education emphasizing Catholic values to 16,666 students. Of these, 78% were registered as Catholics. Ethnic minority students comprised 35% of the total elementary population. The four schools — including Forest Ridge 5-8, Villa Academy, Holy Family (Lacey) and Pacific Crest Academy — and Eastside Catholic Middle School served 1,012 students of that total.

Parish school operating revenues for 2010/2011 totaled $102.2 million. Tuition and Fees accounted for 71% of the total with the balance made up of a combination of parish grants, neighboring parish grants, Archdiocesan grants through the Fulcrum Foundation, and local fund raising and development efforts. The parish grant amounted to 22% of the school parishes’ collection income.

In addition to the parish elementary schools, 11 outstanding Catholic high schools served an additional 6,088 students. Of these 11 schools, the Archdiocese operates three in the greater Seattle area — Bishop Blanchet High School, J. F. Kennedy Catholic High School, and O’Dea High School, under the direction of the Christian Brothers. Together, these three secondary schools enrolled 2,269 students within the total.

The other eight secondary schools offered high school programs of study in the Seattle, Tacoma, Everett, Bellevue, Vancouver, and Lacey areas of our state. These include Holy Names Academy, Seattle Preparatory School, Bellarmine Preparatory School, Archbishop Murphy High School, Forest Ridge School of the Sacred Heart, Eastside Catholic High School, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic High School, and the newly opened Pope John Paul II High School. Together, these schools enrolled 3,819 students. Their combined budgets totaled $49,384,662. A total of 1,422 teachers delivered an educational program to the elementary children. A total of 585 full and part time secondary teachers instructed the high school students.

Fulcrum Foundation

Founded in 2002, the Fulcrum Foundation provides financial assistance to the 73 Catholic schools in Western Washington and their students, primarily through tuition assistance, assistance to schools in need, and school initiatives that promote academic excellence and faith formation.

In fiscal year 2011, nearly $3,000,000 was distributed by the Fulcrum Foundation to families, schools, and teachers in Catholic schools in Western Washington. This represents the largest year of distributions to schools in the recorded history of the Archdiocese and a 370-percent increase in annual distributions from the Fulcrum Foundation since 2004.

Fulcrum’s success has meant a sounder financial footing for our Catholic schools, which continue to make excellent academic, religious, and co-curricular programs accessible to more students. This report highlights the distributions of tuition assistance, assistance to schools in need, and grants for teacher and staff initiatives for fiscal year 2011 that are making a difference in the lives of families, schools, and communities across Western Washington. Office for Youth and Young Adult Ministry

While fostering ministry at the parish level through resources and support is our main focus, direct ministry is also part of our scope. Through archdiocesan events, such as Youth Convention and Junior High Rally, over 2,400 youth from over 85 parishes have encountered Christ as they celebrate their faith as part of the Universal Church. Through other direct programs of the office, including Confirmation retreats, parish-based retreats and weeklong service trips, approximately 1,000 youth have been ministered to.

Young adult ministry in programs such as retreats, leadership development, formation events, and college campus ministry, the Archdiocese ministered to over 1,200 participants ages 18–39 in Western Washington. In the past year we have expanded young adult ministry to include new programs specifically designed for young adults and launched a young adult leadership development program supporting ministries in almost 20 parishes around the Archdiocese.

Athletics

CYO Athletics coordinated league competition and championships for approximately 50 Catholic parishes/schools and several other private schools within King, Pierce and Snohomish counties. The purpose of these programs is to help our youth grow in their ability to apply the Gospel values to their everyday life — to develop attitudes of fair play, teamwork, self-discipline and physical fitness based upon Catholic Christian principles — and become champions by maximizing their potential.

Sports included soccer, cross country, basketball, volleyball, baseball and track and field. The majority of the programs is to help our youth grow in their ability to apply the Gospel values to their everyday life — to develop attitudes of fair play, teamwork, self-discipline and physical fitness based upon Catholic Christian principles — and become champions by maximizing their potential.

Mission Statement

We trust in Jesus to use our hearts and hands to comfort His people, celebrate the dignity of life and offer hope. Catholic cemeteries are signs of hope that are places of prayer and witness our faith in the Lord Jesus. Cemeteries are signs of hope that are places of prayer and witness our faith in the Lord Jesus, cemeteries are signs of hope that are places of prayer and witness our faith in the Lord Jesus.

Associated Catholic Cemeteries

Associated Catholic Cemeteries is comprised of four cemeteries and has buried more than 79,000 people over 122 years. Calvary, located near the University of Washington in Seattle, was dedicated in 1889. Holyrood, serving North Seattle, King, and Snohomish Counties, was blessed in 1953. Gethsemane, dedicated in 1975, serves South Seattle, King and Pierce Counties. St. Patrick, begun in 1890 as the parish cemetery for St. Anthony (now Holy Spirit) Parish in Kent, was transferred to ACC in 1989. These four cemeteries provided 939 burial services during 2010/2011. In keeping with the Church’s teaching of a preferential option for the poor, Associated Catholic Cemeteries continues to provide burial services at no charge or at a reduced cost to those in need. This is made possible due to the support of other families who choose their Catholic cemetery for their burial needs.

Associated Catholic Cemeteries continues its long-standing practice of operating without financial subsidy from the Archdiocese. Financial results for the year ending June 30, 2011 show a positive Net Income from Operations which is used for development and equipment replacement. The cemeteries also have a Care Fund for long-term care and maintenance. Even with market uncertainty, regular contributions to the Care Fund as well as positive returns in the Fund’s investment portfolio resulted in a net growth of more than 25% in the Fund’s investment portfolio.

In addition to the four Archdiocesan Cemeteries, there are 20 active parish cemeteries throughout the Archdiocese. The financial results of these cemeteries are included in parish operations. A Pre-need Planning Guide as well as A Guide for Making Good Decisions for the End of Life are both available at no charge by calling 1-888-784-8683. To learn more about the Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese visit them on the internet at www.mycatholiccemetery.org.
A s a faith-based and values-driven outreach of the Catholic Church, Catholic Community Services (CCS) and Catholic Housing Services (CHS) of Western Washington have provided safety, stability and supportive connections in the lives of men, women and children in need for more than 90 years. CCS/CHS is the largest local private provider of assistance to poor and vulnerable people in the State of Washington. Under the leadership of Archbishop J. Peter Sartain, and at the direction of the Boards of Trustees and Michael L. Reichert, President, the staff of CCS and CHS provide loving and compassionate service to persons in need throughout Western Washington. Together with parish communities, CCS and CHS provide an array of services to those in need through more than 150 programs. CCS has 12 family centers which are multi-service centers providing a variety of programs based on the needs of the particular community in which they are located. The Long Term Care System provides home-based services for seniors and people with disabilities of all economic backgrounds, as well as community based services at 35 sites throughout Western Washington. Chemical Dependency System Northwest provides a full continuum of outpatient chemical dependency treatment services for youth and adults and their families. The Family Preservation System assists children/youth and families with multiple and complex needs. Catholic Housing Services provides affordable housing, case management and other valuable services at 50 properties throughout the region. In each area of the Archdiocese, services are based on local needs and funding. Services are provided through a variety of sources, including contracts with cities and counties, contracts with state and federal governments, fees for services, private donations and foundations, and through United Way. Archdiocesan funding is provided through the Annual Catholic Appeal, CCS Week, and a variety of specific family center and program appeals throughout the year. The Catholic Charities Foundation also provides funding.

CCS FAMILY CENTERS

CCS has 12 family centers located throughout Western Washington. CCS family centers reflect the needs and resources in each community where they are located. Where possible, family centers tailor a unique approach to each family that comes to them in need. Family center staff work to integrate all the services available in a community to nourish self-sufficiency and achieve wholeness and wellbeing for every member of the family. Family center services vary by site and may include counseling, case management, information and referral, emergency services, shelters and transitional housing, permanent housing, mental health services, family support services, child care, youth services, chemical dependency services, foster care, adoption, pregnancy support, Volunteer Chore Services, the Foster Parent Program, and others.

THE LONG TERM CARE SYSTEM

More than 5,000 people are served every day by Catholic Community Services’ Long Term Care System. With more than 2,000 staff and 200 volunteers at 21 local offices and centers throughout the community, the Long Term Care System serves seniors and people with disabilities of all economic backgrounds in all counties in Western Washington. Services include home care to over 2,500 seniors daily, the African-American Elders Program in King County, 35 senior meal sites, ‘meals-on-wheels’ for homebound seniors, 5 senior centers in Lewis County, senior transportation, and caregiver training at many sites, training thousands of caregivers during the year.

CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY SYSTEM NORTHWEST

CCS Recovery Centers provide a full continuum of outpatient chemical dependency treatment services for youth, adults, and their families. CCS Recovery Centers are a safe, nurturing, and enriching environments where all are treated with dignity and respect. All clients and their families are encouraged and supported to make healthy changes to stop the destruction of alcoholism and other drug dependencies. CCS Recovery Centers emphasize a broad range of approaches to the treatment of alcoholism and other drug dependencies. We strive to serve those most in need.

CD System Northwest Locations: Whatcom County and Snohomish County.

THE FAMILY PRESERVATION SYSTEM

The Family Preservation System provides an array of mental health and child welfare services to children/youth and families with multiple and complex needs, serious family conflict, risk of or history of separation from the family, as well as difficulties in other areas of life.

CATHOLIC HOUSING SERVICES

Catholic Housing Services (CHS) believes in every person having the right to a safe, affordable place to call home. CHS provides more than $2,000 affordable permanent housing units at 50 properties throughout Western Washington, serving single persons, families, seniors, and persons with special physical and mental needs. Most CHS housing includes resident support services in addition to a clean and safe place to live. CHS provides a continuum of care for some of the most vulnerable populations, in partnership with local, state and federal government agencies, public funders and private lenders, and dedicated staff and volunteers. CHS housing is currently located in Bellevue, Bellingham, Bremerton, Burien, Centralia, Everett, Forks, Lakewood, Kelso, Mount Vernon, Olympia, Puyallup, Redmond, Renton, Seattle, Sedro Woolley, Sumner, Tacoma, Tumwater and Woodland.

In addition to the 2011 Operating Budgets, CCS and CHS are the managing general partners or program managers for 29 affordable housing projects with a combined operating budget of $4,335,019. The Catholic Charities Foundation of Western Washington reported assets as of June 30, 2011, of $13.9 million that were invested for the benefit of CCS and CHS. For the year ending June 30, 2011, the Foundation distributed $675,000 to CCS and CHS.

Dear Members of the Church of Western Washington:

As members of the Archdiocesan Finance Council, we assist Archbishop Sartain and his staff in the oversight of the financial matters of the Archdiocese. However, it is only through your generosity that the Archdiocese of Seattle is able to carry out its mission in Western Washington. This Annual Report, along with this letter, addresses the financial condition of the Archdiocese as well as other significant matters that come before the Finance Council.

The gradual pace of economic recovery continues to impact the finances of the Archdiocese. While parish ordinary income (excluding three faith communities that became parishes during the year) increased by 2.1% last year, forty-four percent of our parishes experienced a decline in income. However, your generosity resulted in a 4.2% increase in the Annual Catholic Appeal to a total of just over $13.5 million. This allowed rebates of over $3 million to the parishes. There was also generous support of the Fulcrum Foundation, which provides tuition assistance grants to children in need of financial aid to attend our schools and grants to our schools that are facing financial challenges.

While invested funds of the Archdiocese showed modest positive returns they were not large enough to provide operating support to the Archdiocesan budget. Once again cuts were necessary in order to achieve a balanced budget. As in the previous year, the Archbishop made these cuts in the most prudent manner to avoid dramatically impacting the most essential services of the Archdiocese.

The Archdiocese continues to settle sexual abuse claims from victims. During the past year thirteen cases were settled at a cost of $1.8 million. While the number of claims has been diminishing it is not yet possible to determine when these claims will cease. The Archdiocese continues to expand its efforts to reach out to victims, screen those who work with children and provide training for all parish staff and volunteers that interact with our children.

As has been previously reported the source of funds to settle the sexual abuse claims has been from insurance and the General Reserve which contained proceeds from surplus asset sales. This General Reserve has now been nearly depleted and soon additional funds from other sources will need to be identified to settle future claims. As a result, the Archbishop has formed a special committee of clergy and lay members to develop a long term plan to fund future settlements without significantly impacting parish ministries and to insure the financial stability of the Archdiocese.

We hope this report and letter provides you with the major issues relating to the financial affairs of the Archdiocese. As a council we look forward to working with Archbishop Sartain as he sets goals to address the needs of the Archdiocese. With your continued support the Finance Council is committed to providing good stewardship and assistance to Archbishop Sartain and his staff in the financial management of the Church in Western Washington.

Sincerely,

Luino Dell’Osso, Jr., Chair
